
This is your Anglo-Saxon life!

Your task is to write a brief account of the life of an Anglo-Saxon person

Things you might want to include:

- A job they might have done

- What their housing was like

- What their health and hygiene was like

- How long they lived

Is there anything else you could include?

This document is part of an historical investigation for Key Stage 2/3 students developed by the Chase Terrace Technology College History Department with support from Staffordshire County Council Education Transformation Division and Staffordshire Arts & Museum Service.
